

BOND LOAN & RENTAL GRANT ELIGIBILITY INCOME LIMITS

To be eligible for Bond Loan or Rental Grant assistance, the combined household income limits cannot exceed the set limits shown in the table below. The limits are based on the total gross (before tax) income of the household.

| Type of Household   | Weekly Income |
|---|---------------|
| Single Person, no children  | $609         |
| Single person with one (1) child  | $755         |
| Single person with two (2) children   | $877         |
| Single person with three (3+) or more children  | $999         |
| Couple, no children orTwo (2) singles  | $755         |
| Couple with one (1) child orCouple and single orTwo (2) singles and one (1) child orThree (3) singles  | $877         |
| Couple with two (2) children orThree (3) singles and one (1) child orTwo (2) singles and two (2) children orFour (4) singles orOne (1) couple, one (1) single, one (1) child  | $999         |
| Couple with three (3+) or more children orOne (1) couple, one (1) single, and two oror more (2+) children orTwo (2) couples, one or more (1+) children orFive (5) singles orOther households with five or more (5+) orpeople including two (2) adults | $1121        |

The combined gross income amount includes all forms of income received by the applicant, such as wages, Centrelink benefits, Family Allowance Supplement, Youth Allowance, other Centrelink special purpose payments.

Valid from 4 July 2005